3. This Court on 22.08.2019 proceeded to pass the following orders:

> "Heard applicants' counsel as well as learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

Submission of counsel for applicants is that applicant no.1 is mother-in-law, applicant no.2 is father-in-law, applicant no.3 is brother-in-law (Jeth) and applicant no.4 is sister-in-law (Jethani) of opposite party no.2. In fact the marriage of son of applicant no.1 and 2 was solemnized with opposite party no.2 on 06.7.2014 without any dowry but right from the beginning the opposite party no.2 was adamant to live separate from the applicants, and therefore she started creating hindrance amongst the family. Submission is that opposite party no.2 had lodged several complaints/criminal proceedings against the applicants, details of which has been given in paragraph-9 of the affidavit filed in support of the present application. It has been pointed out that the husband of opposite party no.2 has not been arrayed as accused in the present case. Submission is that as now the opposite party no.2 is living along with her husband, they had an eye over the house of applicant no.1 and to take possession of the same, they had lodged the present F.I.R. in order to create pressure upon the applicants. Further submission is that initially in the F.I.R. the opposite party no.2 had levelled the allegations of outraging her modesty also but during investigation this allegation was found to be false and the charge sheet has been submitted against the applicants for the offences punishable u/s 323, 504, 506 I.P.C. It has been lastly submitted that at no point of time the applicants had ever abused or had even threatened to opposite party no.2 and the allegations contrary to this are absolutely untenable. Submission is that malafides behind the prosecution are apparent on the face of record and if the proceedings against the applicants are allowed to go on, it will result in the abuse of court's process.

Contentions raised at the bar require detailed hearing on law and facts both.
